I do not take money prior to the class but appreciate your respecting that I do need notice if you can't come so I can try and fill the space. It is not OK to not turn up and not let me know . There will be a charge of $50 invoiced to you if you do not let me know of your inability to attend. Thus saying of course I understand if an emergency happens. Payment is made on the day. I do ask that any cash payments (correct money please) are placed in a sealed envelope on the day to save precious class time. I also ask that you decide before coming what is you are going to make-especially the size of piece so I ensure there is enough space for everyone, this makes the class run smoothly so I can get all the things you will need ready.
